Brooklyn Police have a Running Fight with Thieves.

Citizens Wakened by a Score of Pistol Shots.

The Harassers Escape After Seriously Wounding One Officer.

The police of the Fourteenth Precinct, Brooklyn, had a desperate encounter with two thieves this morning, during which a score of pistol shots were fired.

The melee began at 2.15 o'clock. Police-man John Gerlinger was patrolling his post on Broadway, near Vandewater street, when his attention was attracted by the suspicious actions of two men on the opposite side of the street.

They had a horse already harnessed, and were hitching it to a grocery wagon owned by L. Gode, in front of whose store the wagon stood.

Gerlinger thought it rather early in the morning to begin delivering goods, and as he approached he called out to ask the men what they were doing.

One of the men turned around and struck the policeman under the left eye with some hard substance and, after a few steps and then turned around and fired a shot at the policeman and ran again.

Gerlinger pulled his revolver and blazed away twice, but as he was chased from the scene he was unable to do more.

Both men ran through Hall street towards the First Precinct Station-house.

A call from a patrol boy brought Police-men Hines and another to the scene.

They were on their way to the station-house with the wagon and had proceeded about three hundred feet from Hall street, when Officer Hines saw two men skulking along a street.

Charles Meyer and William Thompson were on the corner of Central and Gode streets, when the two men dashed past them. Hines, who was on the wagon, called to catch the men.

They and Hines followed them through Grove street, over the lot and into the rear of the Central station-house.

Other Hines saw two men skulking along a street, and he called to catch them.

The policeman, however, grabbed the man by the collar and threw him to the ground. The man broke away, and drawing a revolver, he shot at the policeman.

The policeman followed him, and drew his revolver and blazed away. Shot after shot was fired by the officer, while the man ran.

While Meyer was pursuing one man Thompson was running a hot chase after the other. The latter was running through streets and over vacant lots, the policeman sending three shots after him.

TRUSTED OFFICERS JAILED.

Eric Transfer Company's Manager and Treasurer Charged with Theft.

Said to Have Robbed the Company of $10,000—How It Was Done.

William W. Chandler, Jr., Manager, and Clement J. Challer, Treasurer, of the Eric Transfer Company, whose office is at the foot of Chambers street, are prisoners at Police Headquarters.

They were arrested yesterday by Detective Sergeant Heidebreck and McNaught, of Chief Inspector Brynes' staff, on warrants issued by Justice White at the Tombs.

The prisoners are charged with collusion in defrauding the Company, they represent of about $10,000, the alleged robberies covering a period of about six or seven months.

William H. Maginnis, President of the Company, came to Inspector Brynes last week and stated that the Company was being robbed of large amounts of money, and requested that officers be detailed to find the thieves.

The detectives were not long in discovering that Challer and Chandler were on most intimate terms, and often had private conversations with each other, which finally led to the disclosures which caused their arrest.

The beginning of the supposed robbery was a transaction in which Chandler, as Manager, is said to have suggested to a friend who would sign a receipt for the sale of a horse, which was to be sold to the Company.

This was done, and a check for $500 was made out, and a check for $100 was made out, and a check for $100 was made out, and a check for $100 was made out.

It was the custom of Manager Chandler to make out bills against the company for horses, trucks and other necessary articles, which he was empowered to buy, and the bills were paid by the treasurer, Challer.

It is charged that many of these transactions were fictitious, as was also, it is said, many of the bills which were paid.

All the checks paid to Chandler by Challer were, according to the allegation, once turned over to the latter, who would deposit them in his own name in a bank at Passaic, N. J., where he lives, and Challer would receive the money, and Challer would repay the money to Chandler.

Chandler is said to have been twenty years of age and single, was arrested at the Company's office, and he is charged with having received $10,000, Chief Inspector Brynes having in his possession a check for $10,000, which he says he saw at the Tombs.

G. W. CLARKE BOBS UP AGAIN.

This Time His Mythical Defense Fund Scheme Gets Him in Jail.

$5 a Head All Round from Gullible Newark Citizens.

George Washington Chester Clarke has gone over to Jersey to work his old subscription "Constitutional Defense Association" scheme and has got into the jail.

He is in custody of the Newark police, who hold him for a time to allow about two hundred prominent citizens of that place to come forward and get justice on the man who has beguiled them of their five-dollar bills.

When the police arrested Mr. Clarke last night he was a practicing lawyer in this city, and that he lived in the Stevens street.

For the past three weeks Mr. Clarke has been soliciting subscriptions to the "Constitutional Defense Association," which he says was organized here in 1861 by prominent men.

JOHN H. DRAPER'S FUNERAL.

The Well-Known Auctioneer Will Be Buried To-Morrow.

After Simple Ceremonies He Will Be Laid in Trinity Cemetery.

The Worth House, at 7 West Twenty-fifth street, is becoming noted as the last home of well-known men. It was there that John H. Draper, the County Democracy leader, died suddenly.

He was in custody of the Newark police, who hold him for a time to allow about two hundred prominent citizens of that place to come forward and get justice on the man who has beguiled them of their five-dollar bills.

MAILED IN EXPERT FORGER.

He Had Passed Many Spurious Checks Before the Police Caught Him.

Evidence of Bigamy, as Well as Forgery, Found in His Pockets.

A well-dressed, prosperous looking Englishman, with regulation mutton-chop whiskers of a sandy hue, was taken to Police Headquarters this morning from the Old slip station.

He was in custody of the Newark police, who hold him for a time to allow about two hundred prominent citizens of that place to come forward and get justice on the man who has beguiled them of their five-dollar bills.
